M. Halpin

LIST OF TSIMSHIAN SPECIMENS

for exchange with Copenhagen.

VII.C. 109 Gedar chest, carved and painted. Collected by W.A.Newcombe,1909. Lakalsap village 110 Carved front of chief's head-dress. Gollected by W.A.Newcombe,1909. Gwanaba village. Maple wood inlaid with Haliotis 116 Carved wooden food-bowl, inlaid with opercula. W.A.Newcombe,1909. Kitladamiks village 224 Carved spoon of mountain goat horn. W.A.Newcombe,1909. Lakalsap village 358 Beaded wad bag, "used for keeping their cedar wads for old muzzle-loading gume." Bought of Aaronson, a trader. 1903. 363 Painted wooden spoon. C.C.Perry, 1911. 413 Cradle, said to be made of "dogwood". Citikshan. Presented by the Department of Indian Affairs, presumably in 1397. 414 Carved halibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone adze. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908. 475 "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 510 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Citsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by C.M.Barbeau, 1915.
W.A.Newcombe, 1909. Gwanaba village. Maple wood inlaid with Haliotis 116 Carved wooden food-bowl, inlaid with opercula. W.A.Newcombe, 1909. Kitladamiks village 224 Carved spoon of mountain goat horn. W.A.Newcombe, 1909. Lakalsap village 358 Beaded wad bag, "used for keeping their cedar wads for old mussle-loading guns." Bought of Aaronson, a trader. 1908. 363 Painted wooden spoon. C.C.Perry, 1911. 413 Cradle, said to be made of "dogwood". Gitikshan. Presented by the Department of Indian Affairs, presumably in 1897. 414 Carved halibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911 451 Stone adse. C.G.Perry, 1911 450 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader. 1908. 475 "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 510 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M. Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson by 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by	VII.C.	109	Cedar chest, carved and painted. Collected by W.A.Newcombe, 1909. Lakalsap village
V.A.Newcombe, 1909. Kitladamiks village 224 Carved spoon of mountain goat horn. W.A.Newcombe, 1909. Lakalsap village 358 Beaded wad bag, "used for keeping their cedar wads for old muzzle-loading guns." Bought of Aaronson, a trader. 1908. 363 Painted wooden spoon. C.C.Perry, 1911. 413 Cradle, said to be made of "dogwood". Citikshan. Presented by the Department of Indian Affairs, presumably in 1897. 414 Carved halibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911 451 Stone adde. C.C.Perry, 1911 470 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader. 1908. 475 "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 510 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Citsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		110	W.A. Newcombe, 1909. Gwanaha village. Maple
Beaded wad bag, "used for Reeping their cedar wads for old muzzle-leading guns." Bought of Aaronsen, a trader. 1908. Painted wooden spoon. C.C.Perry, 1911. Cradle, said to be made of "dogwood". Citikshan. Presented by the Department of Indian Affairs, presumably in 1897. Carved halibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone adze. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908. "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Citalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at Portsimpson by		116	Carved wooden food-bowl, inlaid with opercula. W.A. Newcombe, 1909. Kitladamiks village
wads for old muzzle-loading guns." Bought of Aaronson, a trader. 1903. Painted wooden spoon. C.C.Perry, 1911. Cradle, said to be made of "dogwood". Citikshan. Presented by the Department of Indian Affairs, presumably in 1897. Carved halibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone adze. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908. "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		224
Cradle, said to be made of "dogwood". Citikshan. Presented by the Department of Indian Affairs, presumably in 1897. Carved halibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone adze. C.C.Perry, 1911 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908. "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Citsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		358	wads for old muzzle-loading guns." Bought
Presented by the Department of Indian Affairs, presumably in 1897. 414 Carved halibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911 451 Stone adze. C.C.Perry, 1911 470 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908. 475 "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 510 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		363	Painted wooden spoon. C.C.Perry. 1911.
Stone adze. C.C.Perry, 1911 470 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908. 475 "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 510 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		413	Presented by the Department of Indian Af-
470 Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908. 475 "Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 510 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar capling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		414	Carved helibut hook. C.C.Perry, 1911
"Native mortar for mixing medicines". About 1840. C.C.Perry, 1911 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar capling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		451	Stone adze. C.C.Perry, 1911
C.C.Perry, 1911 510 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents "branches of cedar sapling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		470	Stone hammer. Bought of Aaronson, a trader.1908.
The pattern represents "branches of cedar sap- ling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected by C.M.Barbeau, 1915. Port Simpson. 512 Basket of cedar bark, used for gathering berries. The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		475
The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by		510	The pattern represents "branches of cedar cap- ling". Made by a Gitsalas woman. Collected
	1	512	The pattern represents the "starfish" or "crosses". Collected at PortSimpson by

VII.C.	550	Ladle, made of maple wood. Used in festivals. "When the guests were in, the woman whose spoon it was called her husband to gring forth the ladle. When the ladle was filled with food, it was handed to the most distinguished guest, who emptied it through the notch on one side." Collected by C.M.Barbeau. Port Simpson, 1915
	599	Cedar bark mat. Port Simpson. C.M. Barbeau, 1915
	613	Mask, purchased from a Gitikshan Indian at Git- segukla. C.M.Barbeau, 1915
	619	Spoon of spatulate form, used for eating "soap- berries". Purchased from a Kispiaks Indian. C.M.Barbeau, Port Simpson, 1915
	634	Head-dress of grizzly bear claws. Purchased from a Gitikshan Indian of Kispiaks. C.M. Barbeau Port Simpson, 1915
	687	Carved halibut hook. C.M.Barbeau. PortSimpson 1915
	723	Painted wooden bowl. Said to have been made about six generations ago. Painting represents the beaver. C.M.Barbeau. Port Simpson. 1915
	741	Mask, called "Talking all the Time"; made by the head chief of Kispiaks village about 1885 and used by two brothers at the same time; used in potlatches. Made of cottonwood.C.M.Barbeau Kisgagas village. 1921
	756	Black bear mosk, made of cottonwood about 1920. C.M.Barbeau. Hazelton. 1921
	761	Loom, for making packstraps, of cedar wood. Informants could not tell whether these looms were due to outside influence or not. C.M. Barbeau. 1921
	794	Small mat or rug, of lynx feet. Formerly large robes and blankets were made of this material. This specimen was made in 1921 for placing on a chair. C.M.Barbeau. Hazelton. 1921

VII.d.	824	Rattle, said by the owner to be more than eighty years old in 1921. Made of maple wood, with shot inside. Used by shaman. The paint is red other. C.M.Barbeau. Kisgagas 1921
	830	Collar of cedar bark for ceremonies. Gitikshan. C.M. Barbeau 1921
	831	Whistle of cedar. C.M. Barbeau. Kispayaks. 1921
	840ab	Embroidered gloves, made of moose hide, in 1921 C.M.Barbeau Kisgagas 1921
	851	Bag, made of moose legs. Made by the owner's grandmother long ago. Used for hunting. Put in a pack, and never gets wet inside. C.M.Barbeau. Kisgagas 1921
	865 •	Basket-kettle, "made about 35 years ago (in 1921) by a woman who sold them; of spruce roots. Water was first put in, and then some meat or other things, and red hot stones were next placed in to make the water boil." C.M.Barbeau. Kisgagas. 1921
· ·	881	Spoon of mountain goat horn. Made by Eski, the only maker of spoons in Galdo village. He died before the time of the present generation The carving represents the Thunderbird. C.M.Barbeau. Kisgagas. 1921
	906	Spoon of maple wood, made by an old man of Kisgagas in 1916. C.M. Barbeau. Kisgagas. 1921
	1047	Rattle. Collected by Bishop du Vernet, Nass River Purchased by the National Museum, 1923
	1109	Pack strap made of twine and wool. C.M.Barbeau. Gitwanga. 1924
	1110	Pack strap. C.M.Barbeau Gitwanga 1924
	1119	Pair of dance leggings, made about 1921. There is no special meaning in the pattern. C.M. Barbeau. Gitsegukla. 1924
	1153	Gambling sticks of maple wood; in moose skin bag. C.M.Barbeau 1924

VII.C.1201	Rattlem bird-shaped. Collected in Citwanga by C.V.Smith. Purchased by the National Museum of Canada in 1925
1211	Shaman's charm, made of bone. Collected in Kitwanga by G.V.Smith. Purchased by the National Museum of Canada in 1925
1217	Knife, of caribou bone, with line drawings. Collected in Kitwanga by C.V.Smith. Purchased by the National Museum of Canada in 1925
1246	Dance apron of cloth with ribbon design and deer hoof fringe. Collected by C.V. Smith in Gitzegukla. Purchased by the National Museum of Canada in 1925
1249	Ladle for stirring boiled berries in the kettle before spreading them on racks to dry. Col- lected by C.V.Smith at Gitsegukla. Purchased by the National Museum of Canada in 1925
1252	Spoon, with handle of mountain goat horn and bowl of mountain sheep (?) horn. Collected in Kitwanga by C.V. Emith. Purchased by the National Museum of Canada in 1925
1298	Basket of spruce roots. Collected by Harlan I. Smith in Kitwanga. 1925
1313	Birch bark basket. Collected by Harlan I. Smith Kitwanga 1925
1326	Birch bark basket. Collected by Harlan I. Smith Kitwanga 1925
1327	Cedar bark basket. Collected by Harlan I. Smith Kitwanga. 1925
1329	Cedar bark basket. Collected by Harlan I. Smith Kitwanga. 1925
1355	Mat for gathering "soap-berries". The mat is propped open under the bush, which is then beaten. Harlan I. Smith Gitwanga 1925
1377	Halibut hook made five years ago (1922). Yew and yellow cedar. C.M.Barbeau . Kincolith . 1927
1378 c g	Spoons for eating "soap-berries". Birch wood. C.M.Barbeau Kincolith 1927

VII.C.1390	Strap for the brow to hold a pack on the back. Made of caribou-shin skin. Found in a box by the owner at home, when he was a child. Not used in his life time. Now the people use woven packstraps. The owner states that these woven packsptraps were not known for- merly when the skin straps were used. "The skin straps were the first used. The woven straps were made after the white people came to the country. They learnat how to make them from the Hudson's Hay Company. The H.B.C. introduced weaving here". C.M.Barbeau Kispayaks. 1927
1391	Dip not made of wild flax, which grows in this country and has a white blossom; 55 years old. The owner's father made the twine and his mother made the net. C.M.Barbeay. Kispayaks 1927
1395	Small loom for packstraps. C.M.Barbeau Mass. 1927
1406	Halibut hook made about 45 years ago. The two parts of the hooks used to be tied with spruce roots but these rotted and had to be replaced. C.M.Barbeau. Kincolath. 1927
1407	Drum and arum stick. Made about 27 years ago. Deerskin, with yellow cedar frame. Steamed when made. The stick is new. C.M.Barbeau Kincolith 1927
1422	Mask, named "Face like Lying". Made in 1927 C.M. Barbeau. Kimmtu. 1927

1423 Mask. Made in 1927. C.M. Barbeau. Klemtu. 1927